

Community Kindness Movement Video

Sponsored by: Mrs. Pocatello

Produced by: Cade Sutton

Hello Parents or Guardian:

Thank you so much for allowing your children to star in our Kindness Video. We are really excited about this! Since we only have 2 minutes to capture the attention span of 14,000 students, we knew we wanted to use the time to INSPIRE them!

The movie will show a day in the life of a student. It will address how one student can come up with a simple thought and how that thought, led to a simple action. Then the action grew into continual ripple effect, and throughout one day at school became a Tidal Wave in sparking Kindness!

Cade Sutton is an 18 year old, who produces YouTube videos. He's the right guy for this video! The video will be shown school wide on Monday, September 21st, which is the first official day of Kindness Week. We will be sharing the video on social media, so make sure you "Like" our Community Kindness Movement FB page! We will make sure you have a chance to see it.

By having our Kindness Video star and have it produced by local kids, it is yet another way to help build desire in all of them to want to become their own kind of "World Changers"; whether it be in their own friendship circles, classrooms, schools, out on the playground, or in their community. No matter what, every bit of Kindness Counts!

Where: Century High School

When: Wednesday, August 19th, 2015.

Time: 7:30 am

Pickup Time: 12:30

Please send your children with the following:

- Book Bag (make them look like they're going to school)

- A sack lunch

- Media Release Form

- Waiver of Liability Form

- If your child has a yellow shirt, have them bring it in their book bag. If they don't, no problem. (Just in case we need everyone in yellow at the end and we don't have enough Kindness T-shirts that are kids sizes). Just don't come wearing the yellow shirt, come in any other color besides yellow!

Kindness Conquers,

Melissa Nelson
